

Building Communities Program Backgrounder

- Saskatchewan's quality of life is supported by the vibrancy and diversity of the province's cultural, social and recreational activities.
- The Building Communities Program is investing $100 million over three years to help communities increase cultural and recreational capacity.
- Submissions for support are eligible for up to 25 per cent of total allowable costs which will be based on a combination of eligible per capita contributions and total projected costs.
- The Program has two streams: Stream A – submissions where the total project is more than $10 million; Stream B – submissions where the total project cost is between $1 million and $10 million.
- Submissions over $10 million are eligible for $50 per capita plus 15 per cent of total project costs.
- Submissions of between $1 million and $10 million will be eligible for $75 per capita.
- Further information is available at www.cyr.gov.sk.ca.

Prince Albert Field House and Prince Albert Multi Use Trail

The proposed Prince Albert Field House is intended to meet the area's growing demand for sport and recreational opportunities in and around the City of Prince Albert. Upon completion the Field House will feature two soccer pitches, a raised walking track, a multipurpose facility and wellness centre. The Building Communities Program is contributing $2,552,157 to the project. Total estimated cost is $11 million.

The Prince Albert Multi Use Trail consists of a 10-foot wide asphalt-paved trail around Prince Albert for pedestrians and bicyclists, and a skateboard park located in Prime Ministers Park adjacent to the new trail. Total estimated cost of the project is $2,380,000. The Building Communities Program contribution is $229,500.
