

BACKGROUNDER

Fifteen Saskatchewan students received Saskatchewan Gaming Corporation Scholarships this year, recognizing excellence in academics and community involvement. All of the recipients are pursuing post secondary education in Saskatchewan this fall.

The winners of SGC's 2007 Post Secondary Scholarship Program are:

Community Leadership Award ($2,500)

- Mike Dubois                      Regina                      First Nations University of Canada

University: Entrance and undergraduate scholarships ($1,000 each)

- Loree Gillert                      Nipawin                      University of Regina Police Studies
- Jeanine Jensen                      Regina                      University of Regina Pre-Medicine
- Craig Lytle                      Dinsmore                      University of Saskatchewan Engineering
- Megan Reed                      Kindersley                      University of Saskatchewan Agriculture
- Claire Thomson                      Rockglen                      University of Saskatchewan
Veterinary Medicine
- Stephanie Ulm                      Ponteix                      University of Saskatchewan Commerce

Regional colleges and technical institute scholarships ($500 each)

- Jenalee Gorst                      Meadow Lake                      Lakeland College Business Management
- Don Lefreniere                      Saskatoon                      Saskatchewan Indian Institute of Technologies (SIIT) Management Studies
- Cassie Legg                      Indian Head                      SIAST Architecture
- Ramona Lerat                      Regina                      SIIT Management Studies
- Colleen Schalley                      Saskatoon                      Saskatoon Business College
Business Administration
- Nicole Tneal Todd                      Glenavon                      SIAST Nursing
- Chelsea Woolhouse                      Assiniboia                      SIAST Recreation and Tourism
Management

Saskatchewan Gaming Corporation Staff Dependant scholarship ($1,000)

- Christy Meredith                      Regina                      University of Saskatchewan Dentistry