

Always Entertaining

BACKGROUNDER

Sixteen Saskatchewan students received Saskatchewan Gaming Corporation Scholarships this year, recognizing excellence in academics and community involvement. All of the recipients are pursuing post secondary education in Saskatchewan this fall.

The winners of SGC's 2008 Post Secondary Scholarship Program are:

Community Leadership Award ($2,500)

- Justin Anderson Lloydminster University of Saskatchewan
Kinesiology

University: Entrance and undergraduate scholarships ($1,000 each)

- Tyler Ayers Regina University of Saskatchewan
Engineering
- Thomas Benjoe Regina First Nations of University of Canada Hospitality, Tourism,
Entertainment and Gaming
- Caitlin Fiddler Raymore University of Regina Administration
- James Horsman Fort Qu'Appelle University of Saskatchewan
Commerce
- Iyonia Rabayaa Regina University of Regina Science
- Joshua Simair Saskatoon University of Saskatchewan
Commerce

Regional colleges and technical institute scholarships ($500 each)

- Alicia Elliot Saskatoon Saskatchewan Indian Institute of Technology Accounting
- Stacey Fries White City SIAST Business
- Kristen Jordison Regina SIAST Business
- Nicole LaPlante North Battleford North Battleford Regional College
Commerce
- Val Lowdermilk Hanley McKay Career Training Graphic
Design and New Media
- Ashley McCallum Saskatoon Saskatchewan Indian Institute of Technology Management Studies
- Kacey Palidwar Nipawin SIAST Architectural and Building
Technologies
- Michael Stushnoff Saskatoon Saskatchewan Indian Institute of Technology Management Studies

Saskatchewan Gaming Corporation Staff Dependant scholarship ($1,000)

Always Entertaining

- Marit Johnson Regina University of Saskatchewan
Engineering

Saskatchewan Gaming Corporation Staff Dependant scholarship ($500)

- Laura Demyen Moose Jaw SIAST Business