

MEDIA ADVISORY
CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION
SEPTEMBER 18TH AND 19TH, 2009
SASKATCHEWAN LEGISLATURE

(all times approximate)

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 2009

Noon

Premier Wall meets Senators Graham and Hagan and Associate Director Jessica Maher, White House Council of Environmental Quality.

12:15

Premier Wall escorts Senators Graham and Hagan to the Rotunda of the Saskatchewan Legislature where they will take questions from the media about this visit.

1:30

Premier Wall provides a tour of the Saskatchewan Legislature, including the Cabinet Room, the Chamber and the Saskatchewan War Memorial. Three reservists from Saskatchewan who have served in Afghanistan will be at the Memorial.

4:00

Premier Wall joins Senators at graduation ceremony, NATO Flying School 15 Wing Moose Jaw. This ceremony is open to the media. Premier Wall will be making brief remarks.

Media interested in covering the ceremony should report to the main entrance of the O.B. Philp Complex, 15 Wing, Moose Jaw at 3:15 PM. The local contact is Lieutenant Marc Velasco, 15 Wing POA. 306-694-2247.

Saturday, September 19, 2009

8:30

Premier Wall welcomes Senators and Montana Governor Brian Schweitzer (D-MT) to the Petroleum Technology Research Centre boardroom, 6 Research Drive University of Regina campus.

Premier Wall will make remarks highlighting Saskatchewan's leadership in the field of carbon capture technology, and the importance of Saskatchewan's trading relationship with the United States. This speech is open to the media.

Media interested in covering Premier Wall's remarks should come to the PTRC Lobby at 8:15 (6 Research Drive, University of Regina)

1:00

Senators Graham, Hagen, Jessica Maher and Premier Wall tour the Weyburn-Midale Project building site. The media is welcome to take pictures.

Media interested in participating in a photo-op at the Weyburn-Midale site should come to the Encana Plant (22km south of Weyburn on Highway #35, 10 km east on Weyburn Oilfield Road. Media should come to the front entrance at 12:45 pm Saturday. The local for Encana in Weyburn is Twila Walkenden. She can be reached at 306-861-7713.