

New Board Member Biographies Keewatin Yatthé Regional Health Authority

Kenneth Thomas Iron, Canoe Narrows

Tom Iron of Canoe Narrows is a member of the Canoe Lake First Nation. He has been active in encouraging Saskatchewan First Nations in community healing activities. He was a leader for many years, serving two terms as Chief of the Canoe Lake First Nation and six years as Vice-chief of the Federation of Saskatchewan Indian Nations. He has the strong belief that the wellbeing of communities must be foremost, with a holistic approach to healing and wellness. He is the father of five children and grandfather of 16.

Bruce Ruelling, La Loche

Bruce Ruelling of La Loche has lived 42 years in Northern Saskatchewan. He has 27 years of experience working in education. He has also been a member of the Saskatchewan School Board Association for many years, and was board chair of the Northern Teacher Education Program from 1993 to 2009. He works to promote health issues in the northern regions.

These appointments are in effect until January 27, 2012.

Biographies of all board members can be found online:
www.health.gov.sk.ca/keewatinyatthe-board-member-bios

Saskatchewan Ministry of Health
September 2010