

Backgrounder

Journeyperson Certificates in Predominantly Male Trades (PMT) by Gender and Self-Identified Aboriginal Status

	Aboriginal Women	Non-Aboriginal Women	Total Women		Aboriginal Men	Non-Aboriginal Men	Total Men		Total All
2005/06	1	14	15		43	806	849		864
2006/07	0	14	14		56	845	901		915
2007/08	2	11	13		47	971	1018		1031
2008/09	0	15	15		62	964	1026		1041
2009/10	3	26	29		77	1112	1189		1218

Percentages of Journeyperson Certificates Earned by PMT By Gender and Self-Identified Aboriginal Status

	Aboriginal Women	Non-Aboriginal Women	All Women as % of Total		Aboriginal Men	Non-Aboriginal Men	All Men as % of Total
2005/06	0.1	1.6	1.7		5.0	93.3	98.3
2006/07	0.0	1.5	1.5		6.1	92.3	98.5
2007/08	0.2	1.1	1.3		4.6	94.2	98.7
2008/09	0.0	1.4	1.4		6.0	92.6	98.6
2009/10	0.2	2.1	2.4		6.3	91.3	97.6

There are six predominantly female trades (PFT):

Cook
Esthetician -- Nail Technician
Esthetician -- Skin Care Technician
Food and Beverage Person
Guest Services Representative
Hairstylist

All other trades are considered to be predominantly male trades (PMT).

Data source: SATCC records

Women in Skilled Trades and Technologies Working Group Members include:

1. Canadian Centre for Women in Science, Engineering, Trades and Technology
2. Potash Corporation of Saskatchewan
3. Saskatchewan Apprenticeship and Trade Certification Commission
4. Saskatchewan Construction Association
5. Saskatchewan Indian Institute of Technologies
6. Saskatchewan Mining Association
7. Saskatchewan Ministry of Advanced Education, Employment and Immigration
8. Saskatchewan Status of Women Office, Ministry of Social Services
9. Saskatchewan Women in Trades and Technology