

Saskatoon Community-based Justice Programs
Supported by Ministry of Justice, Community Justice Division

Total 2015-16 Funding: $1.03M

Aboriginal Community Justice Programs

Delivery of a range of justice services for Aboriginal people:

- Métis Family and Community Justice Services Inc.
- Saskatoon Tribal Council

Aboriginal Courtworker Programs

Assistance for accused persons involved in the criminal justice system:

- Métis Family and Community Justice Services Inc.
- Saskatoon Tribal Council

Alternative Measures Programs

Programs that address crime in conjunction with the criminal justice system, allowing accused persons an opportunity to take responsibility for their behavior and address the harm they have done:

- Saskatoon Community Mediation Services
- Saskatoon Community Mediation Services – Serious Offenders Project

Crime Prevention Programs

Crime prevention activities for at-risk children and youth:

- Saskatoon Downtown Youth Centre Inc. (EGADZ) - Operation Help Program
- Saskatoon Tribal Council Urban First Nations Services, Inc. - Safe House

School-based Restorative Justice Program

Activities to help students resolve conflict, develop communication and leadership skills, and build positive relationships:

- Saskatoon Restorative Action Program