

BACKGROUND

Residents will need to bring copies of the following documents in order to complete your PDAP application:

PRINCIPAL RESIDENCE CLAIMS

- Driver's license (or other government-issued ID if you do not have a driver's license)
- Insurance denial letter (containing date of loss, damaged location)
- Property tax assessment (for homeowners) or rental agreement (for renters)

AGRICULTURAL CLAIMS

- Insurance denial letter (containing date of loss, damaged location)
- Property tax assessment
- 2015 T1 General Tax return showing gross farming income (page 1 and 2 only) and T2042 – Statement of Farming Activities, and the Canada Revenue Agency Notice of Assessment

SMALL BUSINESS CLAIMS

- Insurance denial letter (containing date of loss, damaged location, mention if insurance is available for purchase from insurance company)
- 2014 T1 General Tax return showing gross business income, T2125 Statement of Business or Professional Activities, and the Canada Revenue Agency Notice of Assessment
- A copy of the lease agreement (if the small business is a rental property)

Don't forget to take pictures of damages to your property. PDAP-assigned engineers and adjusters will need these photos throughout the application process.
