

Teacher Innovation and Support Fund Approved Projects March 2024 (Second Round)

Horizon School Division - Regulation Room

Project that provides an innovative learning environment for students.

Prairie Valley School Division – Professional Development for Teachers

Project that provides professional development opportunities for teachers in areas such as occupational therapy and speech language pathology.

Regina Public School Division – Improving Learning Environments

Project that promotes movement-based interventions to help facilitate student reengagement in learning.

Prince Albert Catholic School Division - Revitalizing Learning Space

Project that revitalizes learning space and equipment for students.

Sun West School Division – School Fitness and Wellness Centre

Project that updates a student and staff wellness room that supports physical and mental wellness.

Chinook School Division – Mindful Space

Project that provides students with additional mental health resources.

Saskatchewan Rivers Public School Division – Hands-On and Visual Math

Project that provides innovative resources to students who may need additional help in math.

Holy Trinity School Division – Professional Development for Teaching Math

Project that provides professional development for teachers to improve their math teaching skills.

Saskatoon Public School Division - High School Carpentry Apprenticeship Program

Project that provides students with experience with industry level carpentry training and certification.

Greater Saskatoon Catholic School Division – Discovery Space

Project that provides an innovative learning environment for students.

Saskatoon Public School Division - Implementing TCIS in Pilot Project

Project that provides professional development for teachers in Therapeutic Crisis Interview System training.

Christ the Teacher RCSSD – Developing Communication and Emergent Literacy Skills in the Early Years

Project that provides professional development for teachers to improve teaching skills in early years settings.

Prairie Valley School Division – “Can’t Hold Us” Culture/Land Base project

Project that provides learning opportunities for students in the areas of traditional indigenous and western music.

Holy Family Roman Catholic School Division - Multi-Purpose Instructional Space

Project that provides an innovative learning environment for students.

Regina Public Schools - English as Additional Language (EAL) Essentials and Communication Learning Resources

Project that provides additional English as an Additional language learning resources for students.