

2025-26 Youth Council Members

Alexander Frostad

Grade 12, Esterhazy High School

Good Spirit School Division

Alex enjoys golfing in the summer and playing hockey in the winter. Alex is excited to be a member of the 2025-26 Youth Council and is interested in learning more about government and policy on a big scale. Alex plans on pursuing politics and law in post-secondary and as a career.

Clair Taylor

Grade 11, Weyburn Comprehensive School

South East Cornerstone School Division

Clair enjoys playing school soccer in the fall and club soccer in the spring. Diving into new experiences is something Clair finds especially exciting. During the winter, you can find Clair helping out in a pharmacy, providing customer service and offering assistance wherever needed. Clair is very excited to be a 2025-26 Youth Council member and looks forward to learning about the Saskatchewan education system and the impact the Ministry of Education has on students' everyday lives. She is also eager to learn about the mental health initiatives within Saskatchewan education.

Cooper Leckie

Grade 12, Holy Rosary High School

Lloydminster Catholic School Division

As a dedicated and high-performing student, Cooper is actively involved in both academics and extracurricular life. She competes on multiple club basketball teams as well as her school team. Off the court, she contributes to the growth of the sport by coaching younger athletes. Cooper is passionate about promoting school spirit and is a leader within her school's Student Leadership Council. Cooper is incredibly excited and honoured to be a member of the Saskatchewan Youth Council. This opportunity will allow her to work with fellow members to raise issues that matter to young people and help create a positive change that enhances school experiences.

Dylan Fleischhacker

Grade 11, Humboldt Collegiate Institute

Horizon School Division

Dylan has been involved with his local swim team for seven years, as well as in student leadership and local political boards. He also works as a lifeguard in Humboldt, where he enjoys teaching swimming lessons and interacting with members of the community. Dylan is excited to be a part of the Saskatchewan Youth Council for the 2025-26 term, driven by his deep belief of youth involvement in politics and the political process. He is excited for the opportunity to provide insights on education policies and the curriculum.

Emma Windecker

Grade 12, Milestone School

Prairie Valley School Division

Emma keeps busy by tutoring fellow students, assisting with the junior choir and participating in multiple school clubs. In her free time, she enjoys spending time with her family at the lake, taking part in her school's drama productions and being creative in the kitchen by trying new recipes. Emma is excited to join the 2025-26 Youth Council and looks forward to working with her peers across the province.

Faizal Oganla

Grade 12, Campbell Collegiate

Regina Public School Division

As a dedicated student-athlete, Faizal is a member of his school's soccer and track and field teams, while also competing at the highest level of club soccer in the province. He has a strong interest in science and mathematics and even spent his summer working as an assistant instructor at a youth science and engineering camp. He is also committed to being active in his community, notably through volunteering with Stargivers Initiative, a student-led group that supports Regina's homeless population. Faizal is excited to join the 2025-26 Youth Council and looks forward to engaging with other student leaders from across Saskatchewan. He hopes to learn from their diverse perspectives and contribute to meaningful conversations that help improve the school experience for all students in the province.

Grace King

Grade 12, Central Collegiate Institute

Prairie South School Division

Grace has been an executive member of Central Collegiate Institute's Student Leadership Council since 2022. She is most passionate about dance, spending most of her time practicing and finding ways to share her passion with others. Recently, she represented Canada at the Dance World Cup held in Burgos, Spain, where she was the only dancer from Saskatchewan on the team. Grace also volunteers with her dance studio and contributes to a variety of community organizations, including the Saskatchewan Festival of Words, Moose Jaw Festival of Dance, Moose Jaw Minor Hockey and more. Grace is excited to collaborate with other students and help make positive changes to school experiences across Saskatchewan!

Hadley Gariepy

Grade 11, Kinistino Public School

Saskatchewan Rivers School Division

Hadley is deeply passionate about the arts, athletics and community leadership. Her love for dance has been a driving force in her life for many years and she devotes much of her time to both training and teaching. Beyond the studio, Hadley is an amateur distance runner who enjoys spending time outdoors and being with her two dogs. She is eager to bring her enthusiasm and creativity to the Youth Council and looks forward to working collaboratively with other members, amplifying student voices and contributing to a meaningful initiative that supports the needs of young people in Saskatchewan.

Jason Agomuoh

Grade 12, Sacred Heart High School

Christ the Teacher Catholic School Division

Jason enjoys staying active by playing a variety of sports, including soccer, basketball, badminton and several track and field activities. In his free time, he enjoys listening to music, studying the sciences and reading philosophy. Jason is very excited to join the Youth Council for the 2025-26 school year and is proud to represent his school. He looks forward to sharing new ideas and helping improve the school community for everyone.

Julia Wiens

Grade 12, Beechy School

Sun West School Division

Julia has served on her school leadership team for the past four years and joined the Sun West Leadership Team this past school year. She is an active member of her community, volunteering at school events, serving in her church and coaching the school's junior curling team. Over the past two summers, Julia worked as a cabin leader at West Bank Bible. She enjoys playing piano, cheering her brothers on in hockey, competing in curling and spending time with friends and family. Julia is excited to serve as a member of the 2025-2026 Youth Council. She looks forward to learning more about Saskatchewan's education system and building connections with students from across the province.

Logan Duchscherer

Grade 11, Leader Composite School

Chinook School Division

Logan is an avid volunteer and leader in both his school and community. He is passionate about his school and enjoys the wide range of curricular and extracurricular experiences it offers. He plays on the senior boys volleyball team and values the opportunity to connect with others while learning more about the sport. Logan is also passionate about the arts and performs in the drama club. His school participates in the regional drama festival, where he takes on the role of Stage Manager and oversees all aspects of the performance. As a member of the Leader and District Arts Council, Logan helps bring quality arts programming to his hometown. Logan looks forward to representing the students of Saskatchewan on the Youth Council.

Mahikan Nabi

Grade 11, Bedford Road Collegiate

Saskatoon Public School Division

In her free time, Mahikan enjoys crocheting, rollerblading, skiing and spending time with her family. These activities provide a balance between creativity, staying active and connecting with the people who are most important to her. She is excited to be a part of the 2025-26 Youth Council, as it offers an opportunity to learn more about Saskatchewan's publicly funded education system and the decisions that shape it. Mahikan looks forward to working alongside other young people from across the province, sharing ideas and contributing to meaningful discussions. Being part of the council will allow her to grow as a leader while helping ensure that students' perspectives are heard and valued.
