

Saskatchewan Distance Learning Centre's (Sask DLC) Health Careers 20L course introduces you to a variety of health care careers while helping you build workplace skills and understand patient care.

You will learn about the health care system, ethics, safety and effective communication while tailoring your learning path about the clinical and procedural skills related to the career you are interested in.

Explore Careers in:

- Nursing and patient care
- Medical imaging and laboratory sciences
- Pharmacy and pharmaceutical sciences
- Mental health and addictions
- Public health and epidemiology
- Medical informatics and administration
- Dental care

Is This Course For You?

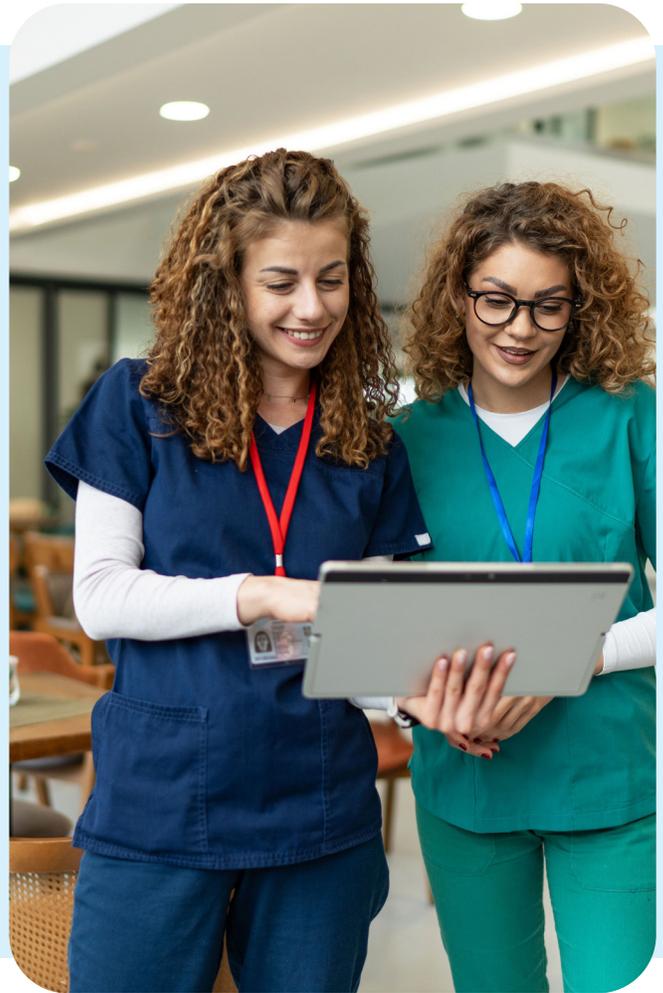

- You enjoy helping others
- You are interested in science and health
- You want to explore multiple health career options
- You are considering post-secondary education in health

Health care is one of Saskatchewan's largest employment sectors, with careers in hospitals, clinics, research, public health, technology and community care.

If you're interested, so are we.

Did You Know?

There is a high demand for health care careers in communities across the province, including roles in patient care, diagnostics, technology, research and community health.

Health Careers in Saskatchewan

- Nursing and Patient Care - most in-demand profession
- Medical Imaging - help diagnose disease using X-rays, MRI, ultrasounds and CT Scans
- Pharmacy - manage medications, support patient care and fill prescriptions
- Mental Health and Addictions - improve emotional, psychological and social well-being
- Public health - prevent disease and protect community health
- Medical Informatics - use data and technology to improve health care systems
- Dental care - maintain oral health
- Physician Assistant
- Virtual Health Care Assistant

Fits Your Timetable

Online courses fit into your timetable during a scheduled class period, study block or outside the school day, giving you the flexibility to learn at your own pace while following a suggested course timeline.

More Than 150 Online
High School Courses to Choose From

